Training Course: Business Development Manager Skills for International Companies

Training Course code: MA234862 From: 8 - 12 July 2024 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Oxford Street
Training Course Fees: 5250 € Euro

Introduction

A business development manager is responsible for generating leads, developing new opportunities, and helping the company grow.

It's an important job in the sales department because a business development manager is directly responsible for generating new revenue.

They can do this by nurturing relationships with key clients, developing new relationships, and expanding the brand's presence.

To do this, a business development manager can track new trends, make product recommendations, propose strategic partnerships, and be involved in long-term growth strategies.
