Introduction

Catering plays a critical role in the success of events, from corporate gatherings to private celebrations. This training program is designed for individuals new to the catering industry who seek to build foundational skills in food preparation, event planning, customer service, and operational management. Catering involves more than just providing food; it requires effective coordination, attention to detail, and the ability to manage multiple tasks simultaneously. This 10-day course will provide participants with an overview of the essential elements of catering, from menu planning and kitchen safety to client communication and event logistics.

Participants will learn the practical skills required to manage catering for different types of events, ensuring that food and service meet client expectations. The program also emphasizes industry best practices, food hygiene, and effective team coordination, providing participants with the tools they need to succeed in the catering field.
