Introduction

Just because a company needs restructuring -- financial or operational -- does not mean it will do so. An erosion of Stakeholder value may occur for a variety of reasons, including Management interference. This program shows you how to do things right.

Corporate restructuring is defined as any fundamental change in a company's business or financial structure, designed to increase the company's value. Corporate restructuring is often divided into two parts; either 1 Financial restructuring or 2 Operational restructuring. This seminar emphasizes the practical side of corporate restructuring in today\(^1\)s ever-challenging world. It focuses on the two objectives of the practical application through case studies, examples and Excel\(^0\) models as well as discussions of alternatives. Main ideas explored include:

- What is restructuring & what are the alternatives
- When & why should you restructure vs. not
- How to calculate the Ireal value of a firm both before & after a restructuring
- What is Leverage; when to use it and how best to finance it
- When to divest an operating unit & how to do it to optimize the remaining value
