Training Course: Negotiating Across Cultures

Training Course code: PC1157 From: 12 - 16 May 2025 Venue: Venice (Italy) - Training Course Fees: 5250 € Euro

Introduction

Cross-Cultural Negotiation training is aimed at business personnel either traveling abroad for negotiations or hosting clients/customers from abroad. We provide you with key information on approaches to, tactics in and etiquette surrounding negotiation.

In this seminar delegates will:

- The etiquette of meeting, greeting, communication verbal and non-verbal gift-giving, entertaining and business meetings.
- Preparing for the negotiation - how to approach the negotiation, building rapport and other preparatory steps.
- Necessary information - tips on what, when and the way in which facts, statistics and other supporting evidence should be used in negotiations.
- Negotiation tactics - examining cross-cultural differences in negotiation styles such as haggling, stalling, changing demands, seeking concessions and closing deals.

Course Objectives of Negotiating Across Cultures

The aim of this seminar is to provide delegates with a practical skill base that will allow them to:

- Gain self-awareness of their personal negotiation and conflict management style
- Understand the key analysis of the negotiation and conflict process
- Learn how to achieve collaborative value-adding negotiation results
- Expand their range of negotiating skills and strategies
- Be able to use a three-step planning guide to analyze and prepare for a negotiation
- Develop the ability to mediate their own disputes and negotiations and to become a more skilled and effective negotiator

Training Methodology

This seminar is designed to be highly interactive, using a mix of case studies, role-play exercises, self-assessment questionnaires, presentations and group discussion to develop the themes around participants' own experiences and needs. It presents an opportunity for delegates to practice the skills taught using a variety of hands-on negotiation exercises that stress participation and that reinforce and build on the comprehensive course materials. This training methodology allows delegates to significantly improve their negotiation and conflict management skills and to have all their questions answered by the highly experienced negotiation practitioner who leads the course.
