Conference: Mastering Supervisory Skills

Conference code: CO8003 From: 22 - 26 December 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Oxford Street
Conference Fees: 6000 € Euro

Introduction

Mastering Supervisory Skills is an exciting and interactive program designed to help experienced and second-level supervisors take stock of their roles and develop the skills and approach they need to perform effectively in the modern organization.

Program Objectives of Mastering Supervisory Skills

- extend their understanding of the supervisor's role and the processes of managing up, down, and across the organization
- develop a strategy for enhancing the effectiveness of their teams
- develop a strategy to support and develop the performance of each member of their staff
- review their working practices and managerial style

Conference Methodology of Mastering Supervisory Skills

Mastering Supervisory Skills offers a program that is highly interactive and allows everybody to exchange views and learn from each other's experiences. The program also includes a range of case studies, management games and simulations, discussion exercises, self-assessment instruments, and video training films.

Conference Summary of Mastering Supervisory Skills

Mastering Supervisory Skills covers a wide range of topics relating to the supervisor's role. The program recognizes that supervisors not only have to manage their teams but also have to operate in a wider organizational context getting things done through, with and for other teams and departments. Insights developed during the course will be particularly useful for second-line supervisors who themselves may have to manage the development of newly appointed supervisors.
