Introduction

This customized leadership training program is designed for experienced managers, supervisors, and team leaders who want to take their leadership skills to the next level. The program will cover a range of advanced leadership topics and will focus on developing the skills and knowledge needed to lead and manage high-performing teams.

Objective

- To provide participants with advanced knowledge of leadership theories and practices.
- To develop participants' advanced communication, decision-making, problem-solving, delegation, motivation, and conflict-resolution skills.
- To help participants learn how to plan and organize effectively at an advanced level.
- To increase participants' productivity and resourcefulness.
- To encourage participants to be proactive and take initiative
- To provide participants with a deep understanding of their job and industry, to help them make informed decisions, and to be more effective in their roles.
- To develop participants' commitment to their work, to their teams, and to their organizations

Methodology

This leadership training program is a combination of lectures, discussions, group exercises and activities, and self-reflection.

The program is designed to be interactive and to encourage participation, this way the participants will be more engaged and motivated to learn. The trainer will adapt the program to the needs and backgrounds of the participants.

- Lecture: The trainer will provide an overview of different advanced leadership styles, skills, and practices. The participants will be introduced to the key concepts and theories related to advanced leadership.
- Discussion: The trainer will facilitate group discussions to encourage participants to share their experiences, ask questions and provide feedback. The participants will be encouraged to share their own personal leadership style and how it aligns with the advanced leadership styles discussed.
- Group Exercises: The participants will be divided into groups and given exercises that will help them identify their personal advanced leadership strengths and areas for improvement. The exercises will be designed to help participants apply the concepts and theories discussed in the lectures to their own experiences.

- Self-reflection: Participants will be encouraged to reflect on their own experiences and how they can apply the concepts and theories discussed in the program to their own leadership style.
- Case studies, real-life examples, and industry-specific scenarios will be used to provide context and relevance to the learning material.
- The program also provides activities that help participants understand their job and industry better, and develop their commitment to their work, teams, and organizations.
