Training Course: Administrative Excellence: Legal and Managerial Competencies

Training Course code: SC235671 From: 22 - 26 September 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Portman Street Training Course Fees: 6000 € Euro

Introduction:

In today's fast-paced, globally interconnected business environment, professionals supporting executive leadership must possess a versatile skill set. They need to excel in organizational management while also understanding the legal frameworks that govern international operations. The responsibilities of executive secretaries and administrative professionals have expanded beyond traditional roles, requiring them to manage complex global tasks, ensure seamless communication, and handle cross-border compliance effectively.

This 5-day training program is thoughtfully designed to provide participants with the tools and knowledge needed to thrive in such roles. It combines advanced secretarial and executive management skills with foundational insights into international law. Participants will learn how to enhance organizational efficiency, manage documentation and communication across cultures, and support leadership in navigating global legal challenges.

Through a blend of practical techniques and theoretical understanding, the program offers participants a unique opportunity to bridge management and legal functions seamlessly. The goal is to empower participants to confidently manage international operations, enhance organizational compliance, and contribute to strategic decision-making at the highest levels.

Whether supporting corporate executives, legal teams, or international projects, this program equips professionals with the skills they need to excel in demanding global environments.

Objectives:

By the end of the program, participants will:

1. Master essential executive management and secretarial techniques for global operations.
2. Develop expertise in organizing and managing international correspondence and documentation.
3. Understand key principles of international law and their implications for organizational decision-making.
4. Enhance skills in managing contracts, compliance, and cross-border agreements.
5. Build confidence in supporting leadership with effective management and legal insights.
