Conference: Human Resources Development & Personnel Management

Conference code: CO8247 From: 16 - 20 June 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Oxford Street
Conference Fees: 6000 € Euro

Introduction

This seminar is designed to help organizations maximize the potential of their human resources. It covers key components of an effective HR process, including recruitment, employee motivation and reward, training and learning, and measuring the value of HR. Participants will gain insights into how to attract and retain talent, create a motivated workforce, and enhance skills through continuous learning. The seminar also focuses on evaluating the impact of HR practices on organizational performance. By the end of the seminar, attendees will be equipped with practical strategies to optimize their HR processes.

Objectives

- To develop an understanding of human resources development and personnel management practices
- To develop an awareness the advantages of effective human resource management
- To develop an awareness of key HR and HRD strategies for improving the organisational success
- To understand the application of strategic human resources development and personnel management practices in the workplace
- To effectively apply appropriate practices to specific workplace situations

Methodology

The training methodology used is designed to encourage maximum participation by all delegates. The presenter will suggest ideas and theories to the delegates and then encourage them to test out the ideas by the use of discussion, small group work, exercises, and feedback. Each day of the seminar will end by delegates completing their own record of what has been learned on the day and considering how the ideas might be transferred back to the workplace.

Organizational Impact

The purpose of this seminar from an organizations point of view is to constructively challenge the organization's approach to Human Resource Development and Personnel Management. As a result, an organization which applies these ideas will experience:

- Lower staff turnover
- More effectiveness in selection and assessment
- Greater motivation
- More commitment from the workforce
- More effective identification and development of poor performers
- Better value for money from the Human Resource function

Personal Impact

As a result of attending this seminar, delegates will be equipped to develop effective people management practices; they will:

- Know how to critically evaluate current HR practices
- Be able to introduce an effective recruitment process
- Understand how to get people to work more effectively
- Understand how to help individuals and teams learn
- Be able to identify, plan and evaluate training interventions
- Know how to create an effective structure within HR
