Training Course: Effective Presentation Skills for Finance Professionals

Training Course code: FI234853 From: 24 - 28 November 2025 Venue: Barcelona (Spain) - Grupotel Gran Via 678 Training Course Fees: 5500 € Euro

Introduction

Build the skills you need to take your finance career to the next level!

Highly developed finance knowledge and accounting skills and Excel proficiency will only take you so far in your career as a finance professional, but in today's highly competitive workplace, those talents will not by themselves be enough to get you into the C-suite with the real decision-makers. Experience shows time and time again that the most successful senior finance professionals only achieve their place at the boardroom table by being masters at interpreting, communicating, and presenting financial information to senior colleagues in a way that they can understand.

This OXFORD hands-on training course explains and practically demonstrates how to prepare for, plan, and deliver financial presentations with real impact on internal and external audiences.

Objectives

The course has been designed to provide delegates with a comprehensive set of skills and practical tools to interpret and effectively communicate and present financial information to senior non-financial managers.

At the end of the course you will be able to:

- Produce clear insightful reports using Excel and Powerpoint
- Integrate financial and non-financial performance measures
- Understand audience needs when making financial presentations
- Apply effective communication methods to get your message across
- Make presentations with real impact on internal and external audiences
