Training Course: The Mini Oxford Advanced Management & Leadership

Training Course code: MA234848 From: 7 - 11 April 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Oxford Street
Training Course Fees: 5500 € Euro

Introduction

This workshop introduces the principle of strategy and develops an effective process for developing strategy at all levels in an organization. This workshop will also focus on the critical roles of team leader and middle manager in harnessing their team's potential and introduces and practices techniques for moving the team to peak performance.

Key highlights of the course are:

- Business analysis
- Strategic team working
- Strategic presentation skills
- Identification and use of team members' talents and preferences
- Structuring the team for peak effectiveness
- Creating and communicating a compelling vision
- Motivating and developing your team
- Managing performance and conflict

The seminar is split into two modules:

MODULE 1- Strategy & Strategic Planning

MODULE 2 -Leading High-Performing Teams

Each module is structured and can be taken as a stand-alone course; however, delegates will maximize their benefits by taking Module 1 and 2 back-to-back as a two-week seminar.

Objectives

By the end of this program you will be able to:

- To define and to demystify the concepts of 'strategy' and 'strategic plans', but also to demystify the strategic process - as part of 'Helicopter Thinking'
- To break the strategy process down step-by-step, providing a practical toolkit for managers for each key stage

- To illustrate it through some well-chosen and highly stimulating case studies - and to distill the lessons from this
- To apply it to your own area of management responsibility - through planning the analysis, option generation, choice, implementation and measurement phases of strategy
- To put this within the overall context of the organization and of the change and influencing process generally
- To give you a lot more confidence in managing your role strategically within your organization
- To understand your role as a manager and a leader
- To establish clear objectives and standards of performance for your team and to manage and use conflict and challenge

Methodology

The seminar uses a range of approaches to learning, including experiential group activities, individual exercises, mini-case studies, role plays, and syndicate discussions. Formal inputs are used to introduce underpinning theory. A key part of the learning process is sharing the differing experiences participants bring, as well as experimenting with a novel - and sometimes challenging - techniques.

Organizational Impact

- Much better decision-making and time and resource allocation - leading to better organizational and individual performance
- Use of a well-proven planning process
- More effective implementation

Fully functional teams are at the heart of organizational performance. Leaders at all levels who can effectively structure, integrate, and motivate their teams are better able to focus on longer-term organizational and customer needs.

Personal Impact

- Increasing career flexibility vertically and horizontally
- Accelerated thinking speed and problem resolution for all difficult dilemmas
- Far greater motivation and proactivity
- Exposed to a range of perspectives on teams and the leadership function, sharing examples of best practices and together solving real and simulated team performance issues.
- Practice new and sometimes challenging techniques will build flexibility and confidence in harnessing the power of the team.

Participants will be exposed to a range of perspectives on teams and the leadership function, sharing examples of best practices and together solving real and simulated team performance issues.
