Introduction

Two quotations that will show you the value of this program:

Good people produce 40% more than average people Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development 2008
A good employee is 50 times better than an average employee. Steve Jobs CEO and owner of Apple

That is the real reason for talent management and ensuring talent is attracted to your organization and that you provide the right environment, including pay structures, for talent to thrive and fully contribute to your organization. This new and exciting program will cover all the areas needed to help you set up a talent powerhouse from strategy differentiation to succession planning and all the steps necessary to make it happen. Delegates will be able to use the new 2008 talent pipeline model, and receive a copy for their use in the workplace.

If you re still not convinced - one final quotation from Jim Collins author of Good to Great People are not your most important asset. The right people are
