Conference: Strategy Building and Sustaining Competitive Advantage

Conference code: CO8131 From: 20 - 24 October 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Portman Street
Conference Fees: 6000 £ Euro

Introduction

"Your success is determined by your daily agenda." - John Maxwell

This conference focuses on the importance of self-management in achieving personal and professional success. Participants will learn to set goals, monitor progress, and reward achievements. The program encourages individuals to take responsibility for their tasks, prioritize life goals, and balance work and family commitments. Develop strategies to manage stress, create positive deadlines, and improve overall performance through effective self-management.

Objectives

- To ensure that participants understand the concepts of strategy and strategic management
- To understand the main frameworks within which robust strategies can be created
- To understand the linkage between strategy building and implementation
- To understand the meaning of the concept of competitive advantage
- To ensure that strategy is changed and developed to create a sustained level of high performance
- To enable participants to understand how their specialist parts of the organization contribute to strategy building and achieving sustainable competitive advantage

Methodology

The training process is based on a carefully planned mix of highly focused input from the course leader - with a practical illustration of tools and concepts; group work on small-scale case studies; interaction and group discussion; and group work on a major case study. The course manual will serve as a toolkit for subsequent everyday use. There will also be presentations on DVD given by acknowledged world-leading authorities on the subject. The principles and approaches to strategy and strategic management will be illustrated by real-life cases in which the course leader has been personally involved

Organizational Impact

- Much better decision-making and time and resource allocation - leading to better organizational and individual performance
- Introduction of strategic thinking into new levels of the organization
- Top management having more confidence in the ability and judgement of its operating managers

- Operational managers will have a better appreciation of the need and content of organizational change
- Managers will understand how and why change is necessary to achieve sustainable competitive advantage
- Managers will implement strategic programs and projects more effectively

Personal Impact

- Increasing career flexibility vertically and horizontally
- Accelerated thinking speed and problem resolution for all difficult dilemmas
- Improved understanding of the impact of operational specialization on corporate strategy
- Improved teamworking capabilities in analyzing and solving strategic problems
- Improved skills in ensuring the most effective impact of individual specializations
- Greater motivation and proactivity
