Conference: Planning and Managing PR Campaigns

Conference code: CO8239 From: 16 - 20 June 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Oxford Street
Conference Fees: 6000 € Euro

Introduction

This program emphasizes using public relations campaigns to drive strategic organizational change, build reputation, and enhance stakeholder value. It adopts a problem-solving approach, aligning campaigns with business priorities and objectives. Participants gain skills to design, plan, and evaluate campaigns using various PR media, supported by case studies and action planning. The conference offers practical tools, examples, and personal coaching for immediate workplace application. Attendees leave with a toolkit for long-term use.

Objectives

- To examine the range of PR campaigns and the purposes that they can achieve
- To develop a problem-solving approach to match the PR campaign strategy to business objectives
- To plan PR campaigns to meet need setting clear objectives with behavioral outcomes and measurable results
- To examine a wide range of successful campaigns to judge the different strategies and use of channels and media
- To measure risk presented during a campaign by increased public and media scrutiny and to plan to mitigate these risks
- To learn how to evaluate PR campaigns to demonstrate success to the business and to develop campaign methodology

Methodology

The conference is activity and discussion-based. Formal presentations will be balanced by a range of case studies, practice problems and group discussions. Sharing the experience of the participants is an important feature and delegates will have the opportunity to discuss their own projects or challenges in an environment focussing on solving those problems. Real examples presented on DVD are a strong part of the course.
