INTRODUCTION

In today's competitive global economy, virtually all organizations are project-based. Whether they are governmental, industrial or commercial ones, these organizations supply products or services intended to satisfy the needs and requirements of their clients by applying the principles and methodologies of project management to implement their projects. Consequently, this programme is designed to:

- Assist organizations in developing professional project managers who are aware of the strategic importance that project management plays in the achievement of the mission of their organizations
- Provide the knowledge and skills project managers need to successfully complete a project
- Increase the capability of organizations to deliver projects successfully by using appropriate processes and best practices
- Understand the project manager's role in leading the way to better project performance and profits

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES

- Establish project goals and objectives that are directly linked to stakeholders' needs and expectations
- Develop and use work breakdown structures
- Develop realistic and measurable objectives to ensure positive results for project performance
- Estimate project time and costs using proven techniques
- Establish an effective project control system and monitor efficiently project progress
- Use a practical, step-by-step process to manage project risks
- Identify threats and opportunities to your project, and weigh their relative values
- Identify and overturn the psychological barriers to risk in stakeholders
- Utilize tried and proven project management tools and techniques to get the jobs done on time, within budget and in accordance with client's requirements

TRAINING METHODOLOGY

The programme will combine conventional teaching with a high level of participation; including an interactive approach to involving participants in discussion of topics; exercises; and encouraging participants to bring their own experiences forward for discussion and debate. Wherever possible, real examples and short case studies will be included from different industries around the world to make the course as relevant as possible. It includes concepts definition, experiential exercises, practical examples, dialogues and discussions, video presentations and case studies.

PROGRAMME SUMMARY

The programme provides participants with an excellent introduction to this highly specialized, process-oriented discipline. It introduces to them the foundational concepts of project management and shows them how to initiate, plan, execute, monitor, control and close a project. The intention is to offer participants essential steps for developing and defining goals and objectives, setting up the project plan, assigning and scheduling the work, establishing the budget, monitoring progress, and exercising control to achieve desired project results by meeting the project objectives with preset levels of quality expected by the client and being responsive to clients' needs and expectation.
