Introduction

This New Management & Team Leadership training course enables experienced managers to “master” people management & to have confidence that team leadership can be taught and makes a tangible difference to the manager, the team and the organization. An important area is that the difference between leadership and management is essential to understand.

But what makes a leader truly credible? Why and how are followers actually inspired? Part of the answer is the ability to “influence” others - organizations get more from motivated teams than groups of individuals. Leadership makes this happen; it is a skill that involves understanding a number of core management concepts then being able to put these into practice. This training seminar equips experienced managers with leadership tools that enable them to thrive in any situation.

This training course will highlight:
