Training Course: Certified Contracts Professional

Training Course code: PC4070 From: 30 June - 4 July 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Oxford Street
Training Course Fees: 5500 € Euro

INTRODUCTION

Contracts establish the responsibilities and rights of the parties. This highly interactive program will provide a practical hands-on approach to the effective management of contracts and offer techniques and contract strategies to assist this process. It will also assist in establishing an international risk management strategy with reference to contracts and develop good business practices to take advantage of opportunities, enhance efficiency, and increase profitability. In this program you will learn how to:

- enhance your contract management skills to improve contract and company performance
- develop systems to reduce the frequency of contractual disputes
- resolve such contractual disputes as do occur in an efficient fashion
- manage contracts and projects from the pre-contract, during the performance of the contract, and through to the post-contract stage in accordance with best practices
- enhance profitability, not only by increasing money coming in from contracts but also by preventing unnecessary sums from going out in operational disputes

This is not a law program. It is the development of commercial awareness of delegates through the practice of effective management procedures assisted by a working knowledge of necessary legal principles.

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES

- understanding of necessary contractual and legal knowledge
- understanding of and application of different types of agreements
- increased commercial awareness needed to enhance the smooth running of contracts
- increased ability to manage contracts with a view to reducing claims and conflict
- ability to identify and mitigate risk factors and associated commercial and program implications
- understanding of the importance of good record keeping and service of contractual notices
- increased understanding of commercial liabilities resulting from schedule changes and variations
- improved ability, successfully to negotiate and maintain long-term inter-business contracts with confidence
- understanding of the need to deal with issues as they arise and to resolve disputes within the contract structure wherever possible
- ability to analyze, negotiate and implement the most appropriate method of resolving disputes preventing escalation by early identification

TRAINING METHODOLOGY

The program will combine conventional teaching based on real-life examples, often from the trainers' own experience, and with a high level of participation, including an interactive approach to involving participants in a discussion of topics, and exercises and encouraging participants to bring their own experiences forward for discussion and debate.

PROGRAMME SUMMARY

The program will address the framework within which contracts are created, and the methods by which valid contracts may be formed. It will also look at some of the different contracting strategies available in international contracting and some of the common provisions. It will also look in particular at payment issues and post-contract liability. The program will consider how to avoid disputes through good contract management and the various methods of resolving those disputes that do arise. This will include current international best practices in Alternative Dispute Resolution in general and mediation in particular.
