Training Course: Harvard Organizational Leadership

Training Course code: LS234814 From: 11 - 22 August 2025 Venue: Casablanca (Morocco) - New Hotel Training Course Fees: 7000 € Euro

Introduction

Organizational Leadership explores the roles leaders must embrace to run a division, department, or organization: as a beacon who sets direction; an architect who aligns talent, systems, structure, and culture; and a catalyst who drives innovation and change. Through self-assessments, peer feedback, and projects applied to your own work, you'll gain a clearer understanding of your leadership style and how to prepare for the next phase of your leadership journey.

Objectives

- Identify any misalignments between the dynamics of your organization and external market conditions
- Communicate purpose and vision, and inspire your organization to execute that vision
- Extend the reach of your influence by leading through other managers
- Elevate your leadership style to meet the distinct challenges of leading larger, more dispersed teams
- Shape your organizational culture and architecture to maximize talent, leverage diversity, and drive performance
- Develop strategies for planning and engineering organizational change and innovation initiatives

Target Audience

Experienced Team Leaders

Prepare for the next phase of your leadership journey, whether you're expanding your overall scope of responsibilities or taking over a larger department or organization.

Entrepreneurs

Learn to lead at scale and mobilize your employees as you transition your business from a startup into a growth-stage company.

Training Methodologies

Organizational Leadership consists of approximately 40 hours of material delivered over 2 weeks 10 days.

At the beginning of the course, you'll be asked to complete a self-assessment and solicit feedback from colleagues, such as direct reports, clients, or managers, for the Learning Path Tool LPT assessment.
