Training Course: Migration, Labor Mobility, and Urban Challenges

Training Course code: SC235896 From: 10 - 14 August 2025 Venue: Dubai (UAE) - Residence Inn by Marriott Sheikh Zayed Road, Dubai Training Course Fees: 4900 € Euro

Introduction:

In today's rapidly globalizing world, migration and labor mobility have become powerful forces shaping economies, societies, and urban environments. Cities are the epicenters of this change, experiencing both the benefits and challenges associated with the influx of people from diverse regions. Effective management of labor mobility and urban development is essential for sustainable growth, social cohesion, and policy innovation.

This training program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, explores the multifaceted dynamics of migration and labor mobility, and their direct and indirect impacts on urban planning, infrastructure, service delivery, and governance. Participants will gain critical insights into current trends, policy frameworks, and strategic approaches to manage labor migration and urban challenges effectively and humanely.

Objectives:

By the end of the training program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the key drivers and patterns of migration and labor mobility at global, regional, and local levels.
- Analyze the socio-economic and political impacts of migration on urban centers.
- Identify the challenges and opportunities posed by labor mobility for urban development.
- Evaluate effective policies and international practices for managing urban migration and integration.
- Develop strategic urban planning approaches to address labor influx, housing, public services, and labor market dynamics.
- Promote inclusive and sustainable urban policies that balance economic growth with social integration.

Organizational Impact:

Organizations and institutions that participate in this training will benefit from:

- Enhanced capacity to forecast and manage the effects of labor mobility and migration.
- Improved urban planning and infrastructure readiness to accommodate migrant populations.
- Better policy development for labor market integration and social cohesion.
- Strengthened collaboration between migration authorities, local governments, and urban planners.
- Sustainable development planning aligned with international best practices in migration management.
