Training Course: Employee Relations and Engagement

Training Course code: HR235991 From: 14 - 18 July 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Oxford Street
Training Course Fees: 5500 € Euro

Introduction:

In today's dynamic and diverse workplace, strong employee relations and active engagement are no longer optional—they are essential for organizational success, resilience, and sustainable growth. As businesses evolve to become more people-centric, fostering a positive and inclusive work environment where employees feel respected, supported, and motivated is a key competitive advantage.

The "Employee Relations and Engagement" program, developed by Global Horizon Training Center, provides HR professionals, line managers, and team leaders with the tools, frameworks, and practical skills necessary to build trust-based relationships, manage workplace conflicts, ensure legal compliance, and drive high levels of employee engagement. This course explores the full employee experience, from onboarding to exit, and addresses the organizational culture, communication strategies, recognition systems, and emotional intelligence needed to create a productive and loyal workforce.

Objectives:

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the principles and best practices of employee relations and engagement.
- Manage workplace issues such as conflict resolution, grievances, and discipline effectively.
- Foster employee commitment through engagement strategies aligned with organizational goals.
- Strengthen communication and trust between management and staff.
- Analyze and improve employee experience and organizational culture.
- Design and implement employee engagement action plans and surveys.

Course Methodology:

This training employs a blend of:

- Expert-led presentations and strategic briefings
- Case studies from leading organizations
- Practical workshops and group discussions
- Real-world role plays and situational simulations

- Diagnostic tools e.g., engagement scorecards, employee feedback analysis
