Training Course: Organizational Culture Development Program

Training Course code: HR236039 From: 3 - 7 November 2025 Venue: Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) - Royale Chulan Kuala Lumpur Training Course Fees: 5500 € Euro

Introduction

Organizational culture is the invisible force that shapes employee behavior, drives engagement, and influences overall organizational performance. In today's competitive business environment, developing a strong, adaptive, and positive organizational culture is critical for sustainable success. The culture of an organization reflects its values, beliefs, norms, and practices, which collectively define how employees interact, make decisions, and contribute to achieving strategic goals.

The Organizational Culture Development Program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, is specifically crafted for managers seeking to understand, shape, and nurture an effective culture within their teams and organizations. This program integrates theoretical insights with practical tools and strategies to enable managers to lead cultural change initiatives that boost employee motivation, foster innovation, and enhance organizational agility.

Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the concept and importance of organizational culture in business success.
- Diagnose and assess the current culture within their organization or team.
- Identify key cultural drivers and barriers to performance.
- Develop strategies to shape and sustain a positive organizational culture.
- Lead cultural change initiatives effectively.
- Align organizational culture with overall strategy and values.
- Foster a work environment that supports collaboration, innovation, and employee engagement.

Course Methodology

The program uses a variety of learning methods to ensure active engagement and practical application:

- Interactive Lectures on culture theory and frameworks.
- Self-Assessment Tools for diagnosing organizational culture.
