Training Course: Modern Standards in Preparing, Drafting, and Presenting Legal Memoranda

Training Course code: SC236036 From: 17 - 21 November 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Portman Street Training Course Fees: 6000 € Euro

Introduction

In today's fast-evolving legal and corporate environments, the ability to prepare, draft, and present legal memoranda with modern standards is essential for effective decision-making, risk management, and compliance. Legal memoranda are critical documents that communicate legal analysis, advice, and recommendations clearly and persuasively to decision-makers.

The Modern Standards in Preparing, Drafting, and Presenting Legal Memoranda program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, equips managers with advanced skills and best practices to produce high-quality legal memoranda. This course integrates contemporary drafting techniques, presentation skills, and technological tools to meet the demands of modern legal communication.

Objectives

By the end of this training, participants will be able to:

- Understand the purpose and importance of legal memoranda in organizational contexts.
- Master modern drafting standards and formats for legal memoranda.
- Analyze legal issues thoroughly and present them clearly and logically.
- Enhance legal writing style for clarity, conciseness, and professionalism.
- Utilize effective presentation techniques for legal memoranda.
- Incorporate technology and digital tools to improve drafting and presentation.
- Critically review and revise memoranda to meet high standards of quality.

Course Methodology

This program employs a rich blend of:

- Interactive Lectures covering theory, standards, and best practices.
- Hands-on Drafting Exercises for practical skill development.
- Case Studies illustrating exemplary memoranda and common errors.
