Training Course: FIDIC Contracts Management

Training Course code: SC236061 From: 7 - 11 July 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Oxford Street
Training Course Fees: 6000 € Euro

Introduction

In the infrastructure, construction, and engineering sectors, FIDIC contracts have become the global standard for managing complex, multi-party projects. These contracts govern the relationships between employers, contractors, consultants, and engineers, emphasizing fairness, risk allocation, and dispute resolution. This specialized training program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, equips legal and compliance professionals with the knowledge and tools needed to navigate, analyze, draft, and enforce FIDIC contracts in alignment with organizational risk management and compliance frameworks.

Objectives

Upon completing this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the structure and intent behind various FIDIC contract forms Red, Yellow, Silver, and Green Books
- Interpret legal clauses and their implications from a compliance and risk perspective
- Apply best practices in contract drafting, negotiation, and risk allocation
- Address claims, variations, and extensions of time in accordance with FIDIC procedures
- Ensure effective contract administration and dispute resolution
- Align FIDIC contract practices with corporate governance and compliance mandates

Course Methodology

The course will utilize:

- Interactive presentations by FIDIC and legal experts
- Practical case studies from global infrastructure projects
- Group discussions and real-life contract clause analysis
- Hands-on drafting and reviewing exercises
- Simulations of dispute resolution scenarios under FIDIC rules
