Training Course: Contract Management: Understanding and Applying Contractual Obligations

Training Course code: PC236005 From: 13 - 17 October 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Portman Street Training Course Fees: 5500 € Euro

Introduction

In today's complex and fast-paced business environment, effective contract management is critical to operational success, risk mitigation, and strategic advantage. Contracts form the backbone of commercial relationships, and their proper administration ensures not only compliance with agreed terms but also that value is delivered and liabilities are minimized.

The "Contract Management: Understanding and Applying Contractual Obligations" training program—designed by Global Horizon Training Center—equips professionals with the knowledge and tools to manage contracts throughout their lifecycle with a specific focus on understanding, interpreting, and enforcing contractual obligations. This program bridges legal theory with practical execution, enabling participants to identify key contractual risks, apply legal principles effectively, and ensure that obligations are fulfilled in accordance with business objectives.

Objectives

By the end of this training program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the purpose and scope of contract management in business.
- Identify and interpret key contractual obligations and enforceable terms.
- Develop a framework for effective contract governance.
- Apply risk assessment techniques to contract terms and conditions.
- Monitor and manage contract performance in alignment with obligations.
- Resolve issues and disputes arising from unfulfilled or unclear contractual duties.

Course Methodology

This course uses a mix of:

- Instructor-led presentations with expert legal and commercial insights.
- Group workshops for interpreting and applying contract clauses.
- Case studies from international commercial and public-sector contracts.
- Interactive discussions on real-world contract failures and successes.
- Role-playing exercises simulating negotiations and dispute resolution.

Organizational Impact

Organizations that equip their staff with contract obligation expertise will:

- Reduce exposure to legal and financial risks from misinterpreted contracts.
- Improve the consistency and performance of vendors, partners, and internal teams.
- Strengthen internal control and compliance through better obligation tracking.
- Achieve higher value from commercial agreements by holding parties accountable.
- Avoid disputes and litigation through proactive issue identification and resolution.
