Training Course: Oversight in the Public Sector

Training Course code: SC236015 From: 1 - 5 September 2025 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space - Portman Street Training Course Fees: 6000 € Euro

Introduction:

Public sector institutions play a critical role in delivering services, safeguarding public resources, and ensuring good governance. As stewards of public trust, these institutions must operate with transparency, accountability, and integrity. Effective oversight is the cornerstone of ensuring these principles are upheld across government agencies and public service bodies.

The "Oversight in the Public Sector" training program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, equips professionals with the knowledge, tools, and techniques required to implement and strengthen oversight mechanisms within their institutions. This course addresses oversight from both a strategic and operational perspective—covering audit functions, legislative oversight, internal control systems, compliance monitoring, and performance evaluation.

Objectives:

By the end of this training program, participants will be able to:

- Define the concept, purpose, and scope of public sector oversight.
- Distinguish between different types of oversight: internal, external, legislative, and citizen oversight.
- Understand the roles of audit institutions, ombudsman offices, and regulatory bodies.
- Develop strategies to promote transparency, integrity, and accountability.
- Detect and respond to irregularities, fraud, and corruption.
- Implement effective internal control and compliance frameworks.
- Evaluate performance and enhance reporting in public service institutions.

Course Methodology:

The program uses a blended approach of:

- Expert-led lectures and briefings
- Real-world case studies and country comparisons
- Group work and structured problem-solving exercises
- Role-playing simulations e.g., audit committee, legislative oversight session

- Interactive tools for risk assessment and control evaluation
- Templates, checklists, and policy frameworks for immediate use

Organizational Impact:

Organizations that apply the principles of this course will benefit from:

- Strengthened internal oversight mechanisms
- Increased compliance with public financial management laws and ethics codes
- Reduced risks of fraud, waste, and abuse
- Enhanced service delivery and policy implementation
