Training Course: Advanced Event Strategy & Operations for Managers

Training Course code: MA236113 From: 15 - 26 December 2025 Venue: Barcelona (Spain) - Grupotel Gran Via 678
Training Course Fees: 9000 € Euro

Introduction:

In today's competitive and dynamic environment, event management at the managerial level demands more than just operational execution. It requires strategic thinking, cross-functional leadership, risk assessment, and the ability to align events with broader organizational goals. This program is designed to equip experienced event managers and coordinators with the advanced skills necessary to plan, manage, and evaluate high-level events that deliver value, create impact, and drive stakeholder engagement.

Through real-world case studies, simulations, and advanced tools, participants will master event strategy, budgeting, marketing integration, vendor management, logistics coordination, and post-event analytics – all tailored for leaders in the field.

Objectives:

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Develop and implement strategic event plans aligned with business objectives.
- Manage high-stakes events with complex stakeholder dynamics.
- Integrate branding, marketing, and digital engagement into event planning.
- Evaluate and mitigate risks in multi-layered event operations.
- Oversee contracts, vendor negotiations, and legal compliance.
- Apply leadership practices for managing event teams and cross-functional roles.
- Measure and report on ROI and event performance metrics.
- Implement sustainable and inclusive event strategies.

Target Audience:

- Senior Event Managers and Directors
- Corporate Communications and PR Managers
