Training Course: Leadership for Public Sector CEOs: Transitioning to Private Sector Excellence

Training Course code: LS236180 From: 4 - 8 August 2025 Venue: Paris (France) - Training Course Fees: 5500 € Euro

Introduction

In today's fast-evolving global economy, many senior leaders in the public sector are seeking to transition into private sector leadership roles. This transition requires a deep understanding of the strategic, cultural, and operational differences between public and private organizations. Designed by Global Horizon Training Center, this specialized training program supports CEOs and top-level public sector executives in navigating the shift with clarity and confidence.

The course bridges the gap between public service leadership and private enterprise excellence by equipping participants with advanced insights into commercial thinking, market responsiveness, financial agility, innovation leadership, and corporate governance. It blends strategic leadership development with practical tools for success in a competitive, profit-driven environment.

Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the key differences in leadership demands between public and private sectors.
- Adapt leadership styles for private sector boardrooms and corporate environments.
- Apply commercial thinking, strategic execution, and performance-based management.
- Lead with innovation, customer-centricity, and agility.
- Build executive presence and personal brand for private sector positioning.
- Develop a personal roadmap for transitioning and thriving in private sector roles.

Course Methodology

- Executive case studies and simulations
- Comparative sectoral analysis
- Peer-to-peer discussions and leadership diagnostics
- Expert insights from both public and private sector leaders
