Training Course: Training and Development Professionals

Training Course code: HR234809 From: 5 - 9 July 2026 Venue: Manama (Bahrain) - Training Course Fees: 4725 € Euro

Introduction

Training and Development T&D professionals today operate in a highly demanding environment where training is expected to deliver measurable value and strategic impact, not just learning events. Organizations increasingly require training functions to align closely with business objectives, demonstrate return on investment, and contribute to performance improvement.

This program equips participants with a comprehensive, end-to-end understanding of training management, covering the full cycle from Training Needs Analysis TNA to evaluation and ROI measurement. It emphasizes how to position training as a strategic function, how to select the right delivery resources internal or external, and how to ensure training effectiveness through structured evaluation frameworks.

Participants will gain practical tools and frameworks to promote training internally, collaborate with stakeholders, and measure training success using globally recognized models such as the Kirkpatrick Model and ROI methodologies.

Program Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the strategic role of training in organizational success
- Align training initiatives with business objectives and workforce needs
- Design and implement effective Training Needs Analysis TNA processes
- Select and evaluate internal trainers and external consultants
- Apply structured evaluation models such as the Kirkpatrick Model
- Measure training effectiveness across all levels, including ROI
- Develop competencies required for modern training professionals
- Promote training as a value-added function within the organization
