Introduction

The AML and KYC Compliance training program is designed to provide employees with an understanding of the regulatory requirements for AML and KYC compliance specific to CBDCs. As CBDCs continue to gain traction, it is important for central banks and financial institutions to comply with regulatory requirements to prevent money laundering and terrorist financing activities. This training program aims to provide a comprehensive overview of AML and KYC compliance requirements in CBDCs.

Objectives

The objectives of this training program are to:

- Understand the regulatory requirements for AML and KYC compliance in CBDCs.
- Equip employees with the knowledge and skills to comply with AML and KYC regulations in CBDCs.
- Enhance the competencies of employees to manage AML and KYC compliance in CBDCs.
- Ensure compliance with regulatory and legal requirements specific to CBDCs.

Competencies

Upon completion of this training program, employees should be able to:

- Understand the regulatory requirements for AML and KYC compliance in CBDCs.
- Understand the risks of money laundering and terrorist financing in CBDCs.
- Understand the best practices for identity verification, transaction monitoring, and reporting in CBDCs.
- Identify and mitigate potential AML and KYC risks in CBDCs.
- Educate users on AML and KYC compliance requirements in CBDCs.

Target Audience

The target audience for this training program includes employees in central banks, financial institutions, and other organizations involved in the development, implementation, and management of CBDCs. The program is suitable for compliance officers, legal professionals, AML and KYC specialists, and other employees who are involved in the design, development, and management of CBDCs.

Methodologies

Here are different methodologies that can be used to deliver the AML and KYC Compliance training program:

- Instructor-led training: This involves a trainer delivering the training program to a group of learners in a classroom or online setting. The trainer can use lectures, case studies, group discussions, and other interactive activities to engage the learners and ensure they understand the concepts.
- On-the-job training: This involves providing employees with on-the-job training and coaching to ensure they understand the AML and KYC compliance requirements specific to CBDCs. This can be particularly useful for employees who are involved in the design, development, and management of CBDCs.
