Training Course: Coaching Skills for Managers

Training Course code: LS234582 From: 1 - 5 November 2026 Venue: Sharm El-Sheikh (Egypt) - Sheraton Sharm Hotel
Training Course Fees: 4350 € Euro

Introduction

Coaching is one of the most effective tools managers and supervisors can use to improve employee engagement, strengthen performance, and support professional development within the workplace. Organizations that encourage coaching cultures benefit from increased employee motivation, stronger communication, improved retention, and higher overall productivity.

This program is designed to provide participants with practical coaching skills that help them guide, support, and develop their teams effectively. Participants will learn the fundamentals of workplace coaching, understand the differences between coaching and other management conversations, explore proven coaching models, and practice coaching techniques in realistic workplace situations.

The course emphasizes communication, listening, questioning, feedback, and action planning skills that enable managers to conduct both formal and informal coaching sessions confidently and professionally.

Course Objectives

By the end of this training program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the importance of coaching in employee engagement and performance improvement.
- Differentiate coaching from counseling, mentoring, and other management conversations.
- Identify personal barriers that limit effective coaching.
- Apply different coaching models and frameworks effectively.
- Demonstrate active listening and effective questioning techniques.
- Conduct structured formal and informal coaching sessions.
- Build employee development and coaching plans.
- Improve communication and feedback skills.
- Support employee growth and workplace performance through coaching practices.
