Conference: Essential Skills for Effective Training Administration

Conference code: CO8082 From: 2 - 6 November 2026 Venue: London (UK) - Conference Fees: 6300 € Euro

Introduction

An effective training administrator coordinates the administrative activities of the training function, maintaining and developing information systems to enable the department to operate proactively in employee development and training.

This program is designed to ensure that delegates are:

- Equipped with the essential skills to confidently give expert support in the planning and preparation of training events
- Provided with a good knowledge of training systems, best practice, and the interpersonal skills necessary to build positive relationships

Conference Objectives of Essential Skills

- Identify the role and principal activities within the training department
- Establish and develop a comprehensive administration system for internal and external training courses
- Develop and maintain an efficient information system on training courses
- Design and use quality documents: joining instructions, course programs, course notes, and course questionnaires
- Write clear and concise letters and memos
- Communicate effectively with all contacts and maintain a professional image
- Organize work systematically on the basis of priorities

Conference Methodology of Essential Skills

There are detailed presentations from a role model expert trainer supporting each of the topics together with interactive sessions of discussion.

There will also be many practical sessions where delegates have the opportunity to practice and learn by experience. Small group work, exercises, and feedback will all be used to facilitate learning and develop skills, enhancing confidence at the same time.
