Training Course: Understanding Human Performance

Training Course code: HR1089 From: 11 - 22 October 2026 Venue: Sharm El-Sheikh (Egypt) - Sheraton Sharm Hotel
Training Course Fees: 6550 € Euro

Introduction

This program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, focuses on the critical factors that drive human behavior, performance, and motivation within modern organizations.

Understanding why individuals behave the way they do is essential for effective management and leadership. This program explores the psychological, behavioral, and environmental factors that influence employee performance, providing participants with the frameworks and tools needed to manage people more effectively.

In today's workplace, employees are increasingly affected by both professional and personal challenges such as stress, workload pressure, job insecurity, and organizational change. These factors significantly impact productivity, engagement, and overall organizational performance. This program addresses these challenges by equipping participants with practical techniques to manage performance, support employees, and foster a healthy and productive work environment.
