Training Course: Preparing and Developing Training Specialist and Coordinators

Training Course code: HR3016 From: 21 - 25 September 2026 Venue: Venice (Italy) - Training Course Fees: 6050 € Euro

Introduction

This specialized training program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, is developed to provide participants with a comprehensive and practical understanding of how modern training functions operate and deliver value within organizations.

In today's fast-evolving business environment, training is no longer a support activity but a strategic function that directly impacts performance, productivity, and organizational success. This program focuses on equipping participants with the knowledge and tools required to manage the full training cycle effectively, from identifying needs to evaluating outcomes and demonstrating return on investment.

Participants will gain hands-on experience in managing both internal and external training processes, understanding how to specify training requirements, prioritize requests, and ensure that training interventions are aligned with business objectives. The program also introduces modern approaches to training systems, competency-based development, and performance measurement, enabling participants to operate with professionalism and confidence in their roles.

Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Write clear and measurable learning objectives for internal and external training
