Training Course: Mastering Training Needs Analysis and Training Evaluation - Fast Track

Training Course code: HR3004 From: 6 - 10 September 2026 Venue: Sharm El-Sheikh (Egypt) - Sheraton Sharm Hotel
Training Course Fees: 4350 € Euro

Introduction

This program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, responds directly to the growing need for data-driven and value-focused training functions.

In today's performance-driven environment, organizations must ensure that training investments deliver measurable results. The two most critical areas that determine training success are Training Needs Analysis TNA and Training Evaluation. This program provides the latest methodologies, tools, and structured frameworks to master both areas with precision and efficiency.

Participants will learn how to conduct accurate and efficient TNA, prioritize training requests effectively, and apply advanced evaluation techniques to demonstrate measurable business impact. The program emphasizes a systematic and auditable approach, enabling professionals to clearly identify which training initiatives deliver real value and contribute to organizational performance.

Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Apply the 4-level model for effective Training Needs Analysis
- Understand and construct competency frameworks for targeted training
- Prioritize training requests using advanced prioritization techniques
- Master the 10-step model for training evaluation
- Identify which training programs should be evaluated and why
- Apply evaluation techniques to measure training effectiveness
- Understand and use unit cost analysis in training decisions
- Demonstrate the measurable value and ROI of training programs
