Training Course: Advanced Strategies in Selection and Recruitment

Training Course code: HR235121 From: 27 - 31 July 2026 Venue: Madrid (Spain) - Training Course Fees: 5775 € Euro

Introduction

This advanced training program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, addresses one of the most critical gaps in modern Human Resource Management: the shift from reactive hiring practices to strategic workforce planning and talent acquisition.

Many organizations fall into the trap of focusing on short-term staffing needs, leading to workforce imbalances, talent shortages, and recurring operational disruptions. This program provides a forward-looking, strategy-driven approach to recruitment and selection, integrating modern methodologies, workforce analytics, and governance frameworks.

In addition, the program expands beyond recruitment to cover performance alignment, compensation structures, and disciplinary systems, ensuring that HR professionals can manage the full employee lifecycle with precision, compliance, and strategic intent.

Program Objectives

By the end of this training program, participants will be able to:

- Develop human resources using modern recruitment, selection, and attraction strategies
- Apply advanced HR practices in performance assessment and workforce evaluation
- Transition from operational HR thinking to strategic and performance-driven decision-making
- Design and implement disciplinary and penalty frameworks aligned with legal and organizational standards
- Build integrated HR excellence plans aligned with quality management systems e.g., ISO frameworks
