Training Course: Salary Structure Essentials: Building a Solid Foundation

Training Course code: HR1948 From: 31 August - 4 September 2026 Venue: Vienna (Austria) - Training Course Fees: 6050 € Euro

Introduction

An effective salary structure is a cornerstone of any organization's ability to attract, retain, and motivate talent while maintaining internal fairness and external competitiveness. Inconsistent or poorly designed compensation systems often lead to employee dissatisfaction, turnover, and compliance risks.

This program, developed by Global Horizon Training Center, provides a comprehensive and practical foundation for designing, implementing, and maintaining structured, equitable, and market-aligned salary frameworks. Participants will explore compensation philosophies, job evaluation techniques, salary benchmarking, and pay structure design, while gaining hands-on experience in building salary models that support organizational strategy.

Program Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the strategic role of salary structures in talent management
- Identify key components of a competitive compensation framework
- Apply job evaluation methods to establish internal equity
- Analyze salary surveys and benchmark against market data
- Design structured salary bands and grading systems
- Ensure compliance with legal and ethical compensation practices
- Evaluate and continuously improve salary structures
