Training Course: HR Skills for HR Assistants

Training Course code: HR3029 From: 12 - 16 October 2026 Venue: London (UK) - Training Course Fees: 5775 € Euro

Introduction

Human Resources has evolved from a purely administrative function into a strategic enabler of organizational performance and competitive advantage. As a result, the role of HR Assistants is no longer limited to transactional support—it now requires a solid understanding of HR frameworks, policies, employee relations, and operational processes.

This program is designed to provide HR Assistants—whether newly appointed or with early experience—with a comprehensive, structured foundation in modern HR practices. It covers the full HR lifecycle, from recruitment and onboarding to performance management, employee relations, and policy development, with a particular focus on aligning practices with organizational strategy and regional Middle East considerations.

Participants will leave the program with practical tools, improved confidence, and the ability to contribute effectively to HR operations and strategic initiatives.

Program Objectives

By the end of this training program, participants will be able to:

- Explain the role and structure of the HR function within organizations
- Understand and contribute to HR policies aligned with organizational strategy
- Apply key HR practices including recruitment, induction, performance management, and employee relations
- Identify and address critical HR challenges within their organization
- Support the development of a high-performance organizational culture
- Build effective working relationships between HR and line management
- Adapt HR practices to suit regional and organizational contexts
