Training Course: Understanding Shareholder Value and Expectation Management

Training Course code: MA234681 From: 15 - 19 November 2026 Venue: Amman (Jordan) - Training Course Fees: 4200 € Euro

Introduction

In today's highly competitive and investor-driven business landscape, organizations are increasingly measured by their ability to create sustainable shareholder value. This program, developed by Global Horizon Training Center, provides a comprehensive understanding of shareholder value from both the investor's and the company's perspectives.

Participants will explore what shareholder value truly means, how it is assessed in financial and strategic terms, and the key levers organizations can utilize to enhance it. The program also bridges the critical link between corporate strategy and value creation, enabling participants to understand how operational and financial decisions directly impact shareholder returns.

Furthermore, the program emphasizes the importance of expectation management and effective communication with shareholders. By integrating financial principles such as cost of capital, capital structure, and performance metrics with strategic decision-making, participants will gain the ability to contribute to value-driven management and communicate a compelling investment story.
