Training Course: The Art of Human Resource Management (Certified HR Professional)

Training Course code: HR3009 From: 28 December 2026 - 1 January 2027 Venue: Bangkok (Thailand) - Training Course
Fees: 6350 € Euro

Introduction

This program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, positions the HR function as a strategic bridge between the workforce and the organization, ensuring alignment between employee needs and business objectives.

Modern HR is no longer limited to administrative responsibilities—it plays a vital role in shaping culture, driving performance, and supporting organizational transformation. This seminar provides participants with a structured understanding of the core components of HR, while also exploring how to evolve the function into a value-adding strategic partner.

Participants will gain clarity on the division of responsibilities between HR and line management, and will develop practical skills to handle key HR processes such as recruitment, performance management, employee relations, and disciplinary procedures. The program also emphasizes the application of the Psychological Contract to enhance employee engagement and organizational effectiveness.
