Training Course: Human Resources Management Basics

Training Course code: HR234869 From: 26 October - 6 November 2026 Venue: London (UK) - Training Course Fees: 9450 € Euro

Introduction

This comprehensive 10-day program provides a modern, practical, and strategic perspective on Human Resource Management HRM, equipping participants with the knowledge, tools, and competencies required to operate effectively in today's dynamic workplace.

The program goes beyond traditional HR administration and focuses on Strategic Human Resource Management SHRM, integrating people management with organizational objectives. Participants will explore the full HR lifecycle—from recruitment and performance management to employee relations, analytics, and workforce planning—while developing the skills required to manage complex workplace challenges.

Through real-world case studies, applied exercises, and interactive discussions, participants will gain a deep understanding of how HR contributes to organizational performance, employee engagement, and sustainable growth.

Program Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand and apply Strategic Human Resource Management SHRM principles
- Define the role and functions of a modern HR department
- Manage recruitment, reward, and retention processes effectively
- Apply best practices in employee relations and problem resolution
- Implement performance management systems in multi-cultural environments
- Ensure data security, confidentiality, and HR compliance
- Utilize HR planning, analytics, and ethics in decision-making
- Align HR strategies with overall business goals
