Training Course: The Essentials of Contracting

Training Course code: PC4004 From: 27 - 31 July 2026 Venue: London (UK) - Training Course Fees: 5775 € Euro

Introduction

Organizations gain or lose significant revenue depending on the contractual terms governing purchases of goods, services, and equipment. Since all business activities are guided by contractual relationships, it is increasingly important for professionals engaged with external parties to understand how to secure the best possible agreements.

This program examines how contracts are created, the main clauses involved, alternative contracting strategies, and practical negotiation techniques, including handling variations and claims. The focus is on contracts written in English, but the methods have wide international application.

Course Objectives

Participants will:

- Understand how contracts are formed and structured
- Analyze major contract clauses and associated legal implications
- Apply contracting strategies suitable for different project types and risks
- Develop negotiation skills for contracts and dispute resolution
- Learn how and why disputes arise and manage them proactively
- Transfer and mitigate risk through contractual provisions
- Use contract provisions to reduce the likelihood and impact of disputes
