Training Course: Workplace Mediation and Conflict Resolution Skills

Training Course code: HR3022 From: 10 - 14 August 2026 Venue: Tbilisi (Georgia) - Training Course Fees: 5775 € Euro

Introduction

This specialized training program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, focuses on developing practical and professional skills in workplace mediation and conflict resolution—one of the fastest-growing competencies in modern Human Resources and organizational leadership.

In today's workplace, conflict is inevitable and, if not managed effectively, can significantly impact productivity, employee morale, and organizational performance. Studies indicate that managers may spend up to 30-40% of their time handling workplace disputes, while senior executives frequently engage in resolving complex issues such as grievances, disciplinary actions, and interpersonal conflicts.

This program introduces participants to structured mediation frameworks and evidence-based techniques aligned with global best practices recognized by institutions such as the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development. Participants will learn how to act as neutral facilitators, manage difficult conversations, and guide conflicting parties toward mutually beneficial outcomes while preserving professional relationships.

Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the theory, principles, and models of workplace mediation
- Apply structured mediation frameworks to resolve workplace conflicts effectively
- Analyze and interpret different types of conflict and negotiation dynamics
- Develop core mediation skills including active listening, reframing, and facilitation
- Manage cultural and behavioral differences during mediation processes
- Handle resistance and blockages within mediation sessions
- Guide parties toward sustainable agreements and conflict resolution outcomes
- Recognize personal strengths and limitations as a mediator
- Apply ethical standards and professional practices in mediation
