Training Course: The Manager as a Strategic Leader

Training Course code: LS1015 From: 31 August - 4 September 2026 Venue: Rome (Italy) - Training Course Fees: 6050 € Euro

Introduction

In today's dynamic business environment, implementing strategic improvements is essential for maintaining competitiveness. However, organizations often rely on competent professionals with little or no formal strategic leadership training to drive these changes. This program is designed to address the critical need for leaders who think and act strategically to lead organizational transformations successfully.

As work becomes more complex and sophisticated, strategic leadership is essential to ensure that improvements are implemented effectively. The role of the strategic leader involves guiding teams through strategic activities, creating productive work environments, and leading efforts to meet organizational goals. This seminar offers a comprehensive focus on developing strategic leadership skills necessary for guiding teams and organizations through change and improvement.

Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the role of strategic leadership in implementing organizational changes.
- Develop skills as a strategic team leader and lead strategic change initiatives.
- Create a strategic change environment, focusing on planning, relationships, and communication.
- Understand stakeholder management and the role of stakeholders in strategic leadership.
- Utilize individual and team strengths to achieve strategic objectives.
- Enhance communication and interpersonal skills for effective implementation of strategic change.
- Apply techniques to manage and adapt to strategic organizational changes.
- Conduct strategic stakeholder assessments and manage them effectively.
- Handle human reactions to strategic changes and mitigate resistance.
