Training Course: Certified Recruitment Analyst

Training Course code: HR3006 From: 10 - 14 August 2026 Venue: London (UK) - Training Course Fees: 5775 € Euro

Introduction

This program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, addresses one of the most critical competencies in modern management: effective interviewing and recruitment decision-making.

In today's competitive business environment, traditional interviewing methods have proven to be highly unreliable, with studies indicating extremely low success rates. Modern organizations are now shifting toward behavioral interviewing techniques, supported by advances in psychology, data-driven assessment, and structured evaluation models.

This program introduces participants to the new generation of recruitment methodologies, including competency-based interviewing, psychometric testing, and personality profiling. It is designed to provide a practical, hands-on learning experience, enabling participants to confidently apply advanced interviewing techniques immediately in their workplace.

Participants will also explore how these techniques extend beyond recruitment into performance appraisal, succession planning, and disciplinary processes, making this program highly valuable for HR professionals and line managers alike.
