Training Course: Protocol, Travel, and Hospitality Management

Training Course code: RR236397 From: 27 April - 1 May 2026 Venue: London (UK) - Training Course Fees: 5775 € Euro

Introduction

In modern governmental and corporate environments, protocol, travel coordination, and hospitality management are critical functions that directly influence institutional reputation, stakeholder relationships, and operational excellence. Professional protocol and hospitality practices ensure that official visits, delegations, events, and travel arrangements are executed with precision, cultural awareness, and strategic alignment.

The Protocol, Travel, and Hospitality Management training program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, equips participants with advanced knowledge and practical skills to manage protocol procedures, coordinate travel logistics, deliver high-quality hospitality services, and handle VIP guests and delegations professionally. The program integrates international protocol standards, best practices in travel management, and modern hospitality frameworks to ensure participants can operate effectively in complex institutional and international contexts.

This program bridges formal protocol requirements with operational travel and hospitality management, enabling participants to enhance service quality, reduce operational risks, and strengthen institutional image.
