Training Course: Public Relations for Managers

Training Course code: MA236407 From: 19 - 23 July 2026 Venue: Manama (Bahrain) - Training Course Fees: 4725 € Euro

Introduction

Public Relations has evolved into a strategic management function that directly influences organizational reputation, stakeholder trust, and long-term sustainability. Managers today are expected not only to oversee operations but also to act as credible organizational representatives who can communicate effectively, manage perceptions, and build strong relationships with internal and external stakeholders.

The Public Relations for Managers training program is designed by Global Horizon Training Center to equip managers with the strategic mindset, tools, and practical skills required to lead and oversee public relations functions effectively. The program focuses on aligning PR activities with organizational strategy, managing corporate reputation, handling media and public communications, and responding confidently to crises and sensitive situations.

Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the strategic role of public relations in managerial decision-making
- Align PR initiatives with organizational vision, mission, and objectives
- Manage relationships with key stakeholders, media, and the public
- Develop and oversee effective PR and communication plans
- Handle crises, reputational risks, and sensitive communication scenarios
- Evaluate PR performance and ensure continuous improvement
