Training Course: ESG and Sustainability Reporting

Training Course code: MA236492 From: 25 - 29 October 2026 Venue: Istanbul (Turkey) - DoubleTree by Hilton Istanbul Esentepe Training Course Fees: 5775 ₺ Euro

Introduction

Environmental, Social, and Governance ESG principles have become essential components of modern business strategy and corporate responsibility. Organizations worldwide are increasingly expected to demonstrate transparency, accountability, and sustainable business practices to regulators, investors, stakeholders, and society. Sustainability reporting enables organizations to measure, monitor, and communicate their ESG performance while supporting long-term value creation and risk management.

This training program, designed by Global Horizon Training Center, provides participants with comprehensive knowledge and practical skills in ESG frameworks, sustainability reporting standards, governance practices, and sustainability performance management. The program focuses on helping organizations understand ESG requirements, develop sustainability strategies, and prepare effective sustainability and ESG reports aligned with international standards and best practices.

Participants will explore ESG principles, materiality assessment, sustainability metrics, stakeholder engagement, climate-related disclosures, governance frameworks, and reporting methodologies through practical case studies, reporting exercises, and real-world applications.
