Training Course: Leadership Excellence in Handling Pressure & Stress

Training Course code: LS1027 From: 21 - 25 June 2027 Venue: Singapore - Training Course Fees: 6250 € Euro

Introduction

In today's high-paced business world, leaders are constantly faced with the pressures of managing multiple tasks, teams, and projects, all while maintaining focus and performance. The ability to handle pressure and stress effectively is crucial for leaders who aim to not only survive but thrive in these challenging environments. This program is designed to equip leaders with the tools and techniques needed to manage stress, maintain composure, and lead their teams through high-pressure situations with resilience and confidence.

Through a combination of theoretical learning, practical strategies, and experiential exercises, this program will empower leaders to develop emotional intelligence, enhance decision-making under pressure, and cultivate a stress-resilient leadership style that fosters organizational success.

Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the psychological and physiological effects of pressure and stress on leadership performance.
- Develop effective strategies for managing stress and maintaining clarity of thought under pressure.
- Cultivate emotional intelligence to manage both personal and team stress effectively.
- Make confident and informed decisions during high-pressure situations.
- Create a supportive environment that reduces stress and enhances team performance.
