Training Course: Human Resource Management

Training Course code: HR234804 From: 26 - 30 April 2027 Venue: London (UK) - Training Course Fees: 5775 € Euro

Introduction

In today's competitive and rapidly evolving business environment, Human Resource Management HRM plays a central role in driving organizational performance, talent development, and long-term sustainability. Modern HR professionals are expected not only to manage administrative processes but also to contribute strategically by aligning workforce capabilities with business objectives.

This comprehensive training program provides participants with a solid foundation in HRM concepts, practices, and procedures, while also introducing advanced tools for performance management, employee relations, and strategic workforce planning. The program focuses on building the competencies required to enhance employee performance, ensure compliance, and support organizational growth.

Participants will gain practical knowledge on how to manage the full employee lifecycle—from recruitment and selection to development, performance management, and retention—while understanding how HR contributes to competitive advantage.

Program Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the role and responsibilities of HR professionals
- Apply effective recruitment, selection, and staffing strategies
- Align HR practices with organizational strategy and business objectives
- Enhance employee performance through structured performance management systems
- Identify legal, regulatory, and compliance requirements in HR
- Manage employee relations and workplace conflicts effectively
- Design and implement training and development initiatives
- Apply HR metrics, including the HR Scorecard
- Make HR decisions based on data and evidence rather than assumptions
