Training Course: International Trade Law Practice Under WTO

Training Course code: PC4026 From: 25 - 29 April 2027 Venue: Manama (Bahrain) - Training Course Fees: 4725 € Euro

Introduction

International business is increasingly conducted under the framework of international law, designed to remove trade barriers and promote fair competition. The World Trade Organization WTO plays a central role in establishing global trade practices, but other multilateral and bilateral agreements are also significant.

This program provides a practical, non-specialist introduction to international trade law, WTO rules, and government procurement legislation, equipping participants to navigate international trading environments effectively.

Objectives

By the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the objectives, principles, and legal framework of WTO agreements
- Review WTO obligations, commitments, and dispute settlement processes
- Apply WTO rules and bilateral/multilateral trade agreements in practice
- Understand government procurement legislation and its implications for international trade
- Gain awareness of Incoterms and their proper usage in contracts
- Promote ethical compliance and corporate social responsibility in international trade
